June 16, 2009

You are cordially invited to our upcoming Beer Dinner with Spaten Brewery, hosted by our Beverage Director, Fred Crudder & Executive Chef, Matt Deckard.

Join us as we take 5 beers from this German brewery and pair each up with a new delectable creation by Chef Deckard. We will also have a representative of the brewery available to tell you all about the beers and answer any questions.

The event will take place in the private dining room of Taco Mac at Lindbergh on Tuesday, June 16, 2009.

Reception and hors d'oeuvres begin at 6:30 pm
Dinner 7:00 pm
Seat reservation is $50 plus tax, gratuity included.

Space is limited. Please reserve your spot on the Beer Dinner page at www.tacomac.com. Please review menu on reverse side.

TAPPAN STREET
RESTAURANT GROUP

Empfang

Wiesswurst on a Stick with Orange Maple Sauce
Spaten Franziskaner Hefe-Weisse
The perfect summer refreshment. Velvety smooth with flavors of banana and clove, with a bright citrusy finish.

Eins

Sausage Salad "Wurstsalat"
Bratwurst / Curly Endive / Farm Egg / Smoked Bacon /
Honeyed Carrots / Mustard -Tarragon Vinaigrette
Spaten Pils
This classic lager is delicately balanced, showcasing crisp floral hops. Raise a toast to Spaten's newest arrival to the American market. Prost!

Zwei

Chicken and Maibock Stew / Rye Dumplings / Sour Apples
Spaten Mai Bock
This elusive spring favorite is golden and creamy, with ample malts lightly tempered by Bavarian hops. 100% goat-free.

Drei

Pork Tenderloin "Wiener Schnitzel" / Warm Mustard Potato Salad /
Melted Leeks / Red Cabbage-Onion Jam / Fresh Cheese
Spaten Optimator
This big-bodied doppel bock tastes of roasted barley, caramel, brown sugar and dried fruits. Doppel delicious.

Vier

German Chocolate "Turtle" Roulade / Banana Pecan Stuffing /
Gingersnaps / Caramel Sauce
Spaten Franziskaner Hefe-Weisse Dunkle
The classic spicy, fruity flavors of a hefe-weizen are complimented by toasty, chocolatey malted barley to create a beer perfectly suited for any occasion.
